

Title : Interesting project for few weeks for someone who likes travelling and new cultures.

Information about the NGO : A Well-known Bulgarian artist, who is lately very active in Human Rights has two foundations, one which is called World Visions and her other foundation "A MUSTT" is about culture and diplomacy (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=W5tL6DjoxG8>).

She is currently in Bulgaria just a few days to find some interns who would like to embark on some international projects. In particular people who are available immediately to start the internship which is partly in Sofia and partly in Belgium.

Job description:

We are seeking for students who would like to help our NGO which is moving from Bulgaria back to Belgium with some of the organisational tasks such as packing our archives, books and office related matters. You must be a practical hand on person who can help with packing and organising paperwork. It is possible to have an hourly rate or a day rate. The payment depends on the experience. The packing etc will be in Sofia in the center in our offices;

There is also possibility for you to travel with us in a van to Belgium and help us for a short period in Belgium to reorganise the new office in Antwerpen. All expenses of travel to Belgium, food and accommodation are being taken care of. Plus you can get an additional fee per day for the help you provide with all aspects surrounding the moving of the office. We prefer people who have a driving license, you should speak and write English or/and French, or Dutch and have excellent computer skills.

Any student from any background is welcome to apply for this small project.

Starting date: Please send your CV and motivation letter to the following email: 1lifelongtraining@gmail.com

More info about my Ngo and the different projects will follow when people apply. We are dealing with human rights, culture and law;