Junior Auditor

"The part I enjoy most about Audit is that every day is different. You're out at different client sites, getting to know different industries and meet different people."

Jordan
Manager, Audit, KPMG in Bulgaria

In a nutshell, our Audit team provide industry insight and real perspective on whether our client's accounts are true and fair. Working in Audit is a great start to your career because it gets you straight to the heart of business issues, plus you get the chance to build strong client relationships along the way.

Be curious

- If you like your days to be fast-paced and dynamic
- If you seek a variety of different environments
- If you've got great time management skills

Be extraordinary

- By working towards your ACCA qualification
- By getting a solid grounding in accounting: working across different aspects, you get to see the whole picture
- By learning about different industries as you work with a wide variety of clients

Be KPMG

As a KPMG Junior Auditor you'll have the freedom to use your talents and initiative from day one, working on real projects, and meeting with clients across some of the leading businesses virtually straight away. Our professional development programme will also provide all the support and training you need, which means you won't be thrown in the deep end and you'll have everything you need to succeed!
