Tax Graduate Recruitment Campaign

"The cool thing about my job is that every day I get to work on new client specific challenges, making me think outside of the box and broaden my knowledge."

Polina

Advisor, Tax, KPMG in Bulgaria

Tax work is challenging and intellectually stimulating and assistance in tax matters is needed in all phases of company's development: – expanding or shrinking operations, transforming or restructuring the business model, ensuring tax compliance of its operations. This means you're involved in crucial times with clients and, as a member of KPMG's Tax team, you could be engaged in anything from supporting them on meeting the compliance requirements, to working on cross-border mergers and acquisitions.

Be curious

- If you are in your final year of study, or a recent graduate
- If you love problem-solving
- If you're both logical and creative
- If you like to keep learning

Be extraordinary

- By gaining a sound commercial knowledge that will broaden your business perspective
- By developing your research and thinking skills
- By working in a team with outstanding professionals
- By staying relevant in a dynamic and changing environment

Be KPMG

As a KPMG Tax Graduate hire, you'll have the freedom to use your talents and initiative from day one, working on real projects, and meeting with clients across some of the leading business sectors. Our professional development programme will also provide all the support and training you need, which means you won't be thrown in the deep end and you'll have everything you need to succeed!
