

Project Manager

Responsibilities:

- Leading delivery of new games and functionality
- Leading delivery of other products in development, for the iGaming platform, Fusion and MOP projects, as well as any other future projects
- Communicating with stakeholders regarding infrastructure, technical support and additional external parties in different countries
- Learning both functional and technical details of our various products
- Participating in an agile way, in the scoping, designing and test planning of our products

Requirements:

- 3+ years of proven experience in leading Projects in software development companies
- Fast paced and challenging attitude
- Perfect communication skills
- Results oriented attitude, willing to get things done and conscientious
- Big headed, self motivated, out-of-the-box thinker, great leadership and problem-solving skills
- Notable experience in coordinating software development
- Excellent personal time management skills
- English proficiency

Advantages:

- If hailing from the gaming/gambling industry
- Experience in software architecture, development approaches, and relevant technologies
- Experience in Online gaming industry
- B.A., B.Sc. or diploma in software development, business management, information systems or similar relevant field
- Knowledge and deep understanding of Agile methodologies
- Technical background and experience with programming languages
- Experience working with legal and compliance departments to meet regulatory requirements
- Working knowledge with Atlassian's JIRA and Confluence. Admin level knowledge is a big advantage.

Our offer:

- Work on international projects.

- Great remuneration package.
- Top center office location.
- Flexible working schedule
- Open communication and exciting working environment.
- Team buildings and Happy Fridays.
- Training and development opportunities.
- Employment benefits package.